

MAINE
STATUTORY CITATION TABLE
FOR SBI REPORTING

(effective: September 12, 2009)

About this booklet

The Maine Statutory Citation Table for SBI Reporting has been prepared as an aid to requesting ATN/CTNs<sup>1</sup> from the Maine Criminal History Records Information system. Only charges that are reportable to the State Bureau of Identification (SBI) require an ATN/CTN.

This booklet lists the Maine Statutes and their unique sequence numbers for charges that must be reported to the State Bureau of Identification (SBI). Only current and active statutes are included.

The statutes in this booklet are listed in order by citation. Provided for each citation are:

- Citation
- Class
- Sequence number (a unique 6-digit code)
- Short Description

Also included:

- Code table for the classification of crimes
- Code table of ORIs for District Attorney Offices and the Attorney General
- Code table for indicating charge enhancements and/or domestic violence
- Additional codes for use in the METRO Bail File

PLEASE NOTE

- Statutes that have expired on or before September 12, 2009 are not listed. Call SBI, 624-7240 for information and sequence numbers on expired statutes. (See also page 5, “Where to Get Additional Information”)
- Changes to the wording of an existing statute are in italics (sequence number has changed)
- Statutes that became effective since the last printing of this booklet (July 1, 2008) are listed in boldface.

SBI REPORTING

(effective: September 12, 2009)

About this booklet

The Maine Statutory Citation Table for SBI Reporting has been prepared as an aid to requesting ATN/CTNs<sup>1</sup> from the Maine Criminal History Records Information system. Only charges that are reportable to the State Bureau of Identification (SBI) require an ATN/CTN.

This booklet lists the Maine Statutes and their unique sequence numbers for charges that must be reported to the State Bureau of Identification (SBI). Only current and active statutes are included.

The statutes in this booklet are listed in order by citation. Provided for each citation are:

- Citation
- Class
- Sequence number (a unique 6-digit code)
- Short Description

Also included:

- Code table for the classification of crimes
- Code table of ORIs for District Attorney Offices and the Attorney General
- Code table for indicating charge enhancements and/or domestic violence
- Additional codes for use in the METRO Bail File

PLEASE NOTE

- Statutes that have expired on or before September 12, 2009 are not listed. Call SBI, 624-7240 for information and sequence numbers on expired statutes. (See also page 5, “Where to Get Additional Information”)
- Changes to the wording of an existing statute are in italics (sequence number has changed)
- Statutes that became effective since the last printing of this booklet (July 1, 2008) are listed in boldface.
